

Truth in Lending Act, Section 128 (e) Information

In accordance with 34 CFR 668.14(b)(29)(ii), an institution must, upon the request of the applicant, discuss the availability of Federal, State, and institutional financial aid. Financial Aid staff members at our institution are happy to discuss with students and prospective students, and their parents, the financial aid options available to them. Students and parents may qualify for loans or other assistance under Title IV of the Higher Education Act programs. The terms and conditions of Title IV HEA program loans may be more favorable than the provisions of private educational loans.

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (Pub. L. 110-35) (HEOA) added section 128(e)(3) to the TILA to require that before a private educational lender may consummate a private education loan for a student in attendance at an institution of higher education, the private education lender must obtain the completed and signed Self-Certification Form from the applicant.

Aid Suspension Due to a Drug Conviction

The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, suspends aid eligibility for students who have been convicted under federal or state law of the sale or possession of drugs, if the offense occurred during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving federal student aid.

If you have a conviction for this offense, call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-433-3243 or submit the Student Aid Eligibility Worksheet to find out how this law applies to you.

If you have lost your federal student aid eligibility because of drug conviction, you can regain eligibility if you successfully complete a qualified drug rehabilitation program or passes two unannounced drug tests administered by such a program.

You may also regain your eligibility if your conviction is reversed, set aside, or removed from your record so that fewer than two convictions for sale, or three convictions for possession, remain on your record.
