

Student Engagement Director

The Student Engagement Director is a full time position which reports to the Associate Dean of Students and is primarily responsible to Engage students in co-curricular opportunities to ultimately, Impact their lives in a positive way and Empower them to transform themselves and their world. This position will plan events and programs which strengthen the student culture and organizational traditions of Point University, as well as promote students' academic, emotional, physical, cultural, social and spiritual health.

Responsibilities and Primary Activities

- Plan, promote, execute and evaluate campus-wide activities and events which increase student engagement and wellbeing.
- Serve as the staff sponsor for the Campus Activities Board (CAB), providing ongoing training and development to these student leaders.
- Provide programming excellence in the area of cultural diversity, teaching respect, inclusion and celebration.
- Supervise two student apprentices (Student and Diversity Engagement).
- Coordinates 3-4 intramural sport offerings per semester.
- Supervises hiring of intramural referee staff, oversees their scheduling, and approves timecards
- Overall supervision of the intramural program: scheduling, tracking seeding, attending and supervising games, and overseeing distribution and collection of intramural supplies.
- Assist the Associate Dean with planning Impact Day, the all-campus community service day.

Education and Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in sociology, psychology, Christian ministry, education or other applicable discipline.
- 3-5 years relevant, professional experience in the area of Student Activities/Student Life.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office.
- Experience supervising others and leading teams.
- Experienced with football teams and other collegiate athletes, minorities, and first-generation college students highly preferred.