

Walnut Christian Church is seeking a Senior Minister to lead our congregation to grow spiritually and help us to take the Word to the lost. We are looking for a full-time minister and salary will be commensurate with education and experience. We are a small congregation in Johnson City, TN within walking distance of East Tennessee State University.

Responsibilities:

- In this role, you will be expected to preach/teach biblical sound sermons/lessons for the Sunday morning service, Sunday evening and Wednesday evening services.
- Minister to the spiritual needs of our church family.
- Being available to the congregation through regular office hours.
- Providing counseling services for church members within the scope of your training and ability.
- Performing weddings and funerals.
- Helping develop and execute outreach programs.
- Work with the leadership team to make decisions regarding the future of the church.

Qualifications:

- A vibrant personal relationship with God.
- A biblically grounded, spirit led minister with a passion to share God's love with others.
- A Christian Church/Church of Christ background.
- A degree in Ministry.

Interested persons should send a resume' and video of a recent sermon to WalnutCCMinisterSearch@gmail.com. For more information, you may also call Ken Conner at (423)794-6828 or Brian Graham at (423)470-0913 any evening.
