

College of Arts & Sciences
Adjunct Biology Instructors – online

Point University is a private liberal arts institution that educates our students within a Christian worldview, so they are equipped to take their faith into the marketplace and all of life while achieving their professional goals. We are training the next generation of Christian leaders to take the cross to more job sites, churches, industries, and nations than ever before.

Point University is seeking to hire adjunct instructors in the College of Arts & Sciences to teach biology.

The online adjuncts will teach a non-majors, introductory survey of biology course (with a virtual lab component) for students in its online degree programs, as part of the general education core. Preferences will be given to candidates who hold a terminal degree, but it is not required.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Graduate degree in biology (minimum of 18 graduate semester hours in biological sciences)
- Prior online teaching experience at collegiate level preferred
- Effective communication skills
- Basic computer literacy; experience with Canvas LMS a plus
- Willingness to be a role model and mentor to online students
- Commitment to undergraduate education, professional growth, service, and scholarship in a distinctively Christian setting, including agreement with the University's mission and goals, values, and doctrinal statement.

Please complete the online application.

1. In the position section, enter ADJBIO.
2. Please include three professional references with contact information.
3. Send copies of transcripts to Jobs@point.edu (unofficial will be accepted for application purposes with official required for hiring.)
