SUPPORT RASIED POSITION

Global City Mission Initiative (GCMI) is seeking regional mobilization catalysts. Global City Mission is working to see disciple-making initiatives in strategic global cities around the world starting in North America. In order to effectively advance disciple-making in urban settings, we focus on these three areas of ministry:

- Evangelism & church planting in global cities
- Coaching local believers to reach their communities
- Providing equipping & training for established churches

In GCMI, mobilization involves a robust & multi-layered strategy to advance disciple-making. Mobilization includes recruiting new full-time missionaries, activating (non-clergy) believers to become disciple-makers in their communities, and connecting GCMI to churches for evangelism training. Mobilizers are essentially those agents serving to activate believers into the harvest as disciple-makers.
