ABOUT POINT UNIVERSITY

Point University is a private institution that educates students to impact culture for Christ. The University provides a broad, comprehensive curriculum designed to prepare students for their chosen professions, awarding associate, bachelor's and master's degrees. Point is equipping the next generation to take their faith into the marketplace in new and culturally relevant ways — to erase the lines between who they are and what they do so that they see life and mission as one and the same.

Who We Are

Founded in 1937 as Atlanta Christian College, Point University originally devoted its attention to the education of ministers, missionaries and other church-related workers. In 1965, the college became an accredited member of the American Association of Bible Colleges (AABC). In 1990, in conjunction with a broadening of the curriculum, the college was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate and baccalaureate degrees. The University's graduate programs were approved by SACSCOC in 2016.

Point University continues today to serve and inspire the next generation of Christian leaders motivated to live out their faith in the marketplace. It offers associate and bachelor's degrees for full-time, traditional students; accelerated associate and
