

Adjunct Instructor – Applied Music

Point University is a Christian institution that educates our students within a Christian worldview, so they are equipped to take their faith into the marketplace and all of life while achieving their professional goals. We are training the next generation of Christian leaders to take the cross to more job sites, churches, industries, and nations than ever before.

The Point University Fine Arts Department is accepting applications for adjunct applied instruction on all instruments. The essential duties and qualifications are listed below.

Responsibilities and Primary Activities:

- Teach weekly applied lessons
- Attend weekly studio meetings
- Oversee student recital preparations as assigned

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in music performance or a related field (Doctorate preferred)
- Successful music teaching experience at the high school or college level

For additional information, please contact:

Andrew Harry, Department Chair, Fine Arts
andrew.harry@point.edu