

Assistant Professor of Communication
College of Arts & Sciences – West Point, GA

Point University is a private liberal arts institution that educates our students within a Christian worldview, so they are equipped to take their faith into the marketplace and all of life while achieving their professional goals. We are training the next generation of Christian leaders to take the cross to more job sites, churches, industries, and nations than ever before.

Point University offers a B. S. degree in Communication on-ground at our West Point campus. This degree program equips students to serve as professional communicators in a variety of ministry and marketplace settings, developing a broad base of skills in oral, written, and visual communication. We are seeking to hire a full-time professor to primarily teach Communication courses on-ground, with ongoing opportunities for some online teaching. Preferably, this faculty appointment would begin in January, 2025, and primary teaching responsibilities will include the following:

- Public Speaking
- Business Communication
- Interpersonal Communication

The candidate should also be able to teach the following:

- Organizational Communication
- Introduction to Mass Communication
- Media Writing

REQUIREMENTS:

- Graduate degree in Communication (*minimum of 18 graduate semester hours in the field; doctorate preferred)
- Prior teaching experience at collegiate level preferred
- Basic computer literacy
- Experience with Canvas LMS a plus
- Ability to design new courses in the Communication curriculum a plus
- Willingness to be a role model and mentor to students
- Commitment to undergraduate education, professional growth, service, and scholarship in a distinctively Christian setting, including agreement with the University's mission and goals, values, and doctrinal statement.

Scenic West Point, Georgia

Point University is in historic West Point, Georgia. With the university integrated into the city, West Point is a college town that maintains its small-town uniqueness. Just over an hour from the city of Atlanta, West Point has immediate interstate access (I-85) and grants comfortable travel to Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, professional sports, arts, and all the amenities that a major metropolitan area offers. West Point is also close to other city centers, such as Auburn/Opelika, AL, and Columbus, GA.

Point University is in a region rich with opportunities for the outdoor enthusiast. Campus intersects with the Chattahoochee River and is close to West Point Lake. Point University is within an hour drive of multiple state parks in Georgia and Alabama. Multiple beaches and the Appalachians are easy getaways.
