What are the responsibilities/duties? SMCC is looking for a part-time worship minister that is expected to require approximately 10-15 hours per week. We currently have one worship service which is a blended style of worship.

SMCC is looking for someone who can plan and lead the Sunday morning blended worship service which includes selecting the song/music and intermittent Scripture readings, etc. Prepare the weekly power point/pro presenter presentation. Identify, recruit, and schedule musicians and praise team members. Conduct a weekly praise team practice. Work with the Sr. Minister to coordinate the sermon series, themes, and texts into the song selections.. Work with the Sr. Minister looking for ways to incorporate other forms of worship and expression into the weekly worship services including videos, skits, testimonies, and interpretive forms of praise & worship. Use your creativity, experience, and gifts to help people find, follow, and worship Jesus!

Please submit your resume/application via email at brian@smokymountainchurch.com. This position is considered part-time; but SMCC is also looking for a youth & family minister which means this could be a full-time person for the individual who has the interest and/or ability to serve in both ministry roles.
