Full-Time History Instructor - Savannah

Point University is a private liberal arts institution that educates our students within a Christian worldview, so they are equipped to take their faith into the marketplace and all of life while achieving their professional goals. We are training the next generation of Christian leaders to take the cross to more job sites, churches, industries, and nations than ever before.

Point University is seeking a full-time history instructor for its programs in the Savannah-Chatham County area. This position teaches primarily in the dual credit enrolment (DCE) program for high schoolers earning college credit while completing high school requirements.

Courses primarily include:

- HIS 103: US Government
- HIS 104: World History I
- HIS 250: United States History I

This role also serves as the DCE faculty lead for History courses which includes working with DCE site staff to recruit and schedule adjunct faculty, overseeing adjunct faculty evaluations, and working with university administration to ensure course standards are met.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Graduate degree in History is required; terminal degree preferred.
- Minimum of 2 years teaching courses at the collegiate level.
- Experience in online course development or significant online course redesign.
- Effective teaching ability with excellent communication skills
- Willingness to be a professional role model and mentor
- Ability to recruit and schedule adjunct instructors
- Commitment to undergraduate education, professional growth, service, and scholarship in a distinctively Christian setting, including agreement with the University's mission and goals, values, and doctrinal statement.

Please complete the online application.

1. In the position section, enter HISTSAV.

2. Please include three professional references with contact information.

3. Send copies of transcripts to Jobs@point.edu (unofficial will be accepted for application purposes with official required for hiring.)