

Head Coach – Women’s Flag Football

Point University is a private liberal arts institution that educates our students within a Christian worldview, so they are equipped to take their faith into the marketplace and all of life while achieving their professional goals. We are training the next generation of Christian leaders to take the cross to more job sites, churches, industries, and nations than ever before.

This position is responsible for organizing and overseeing all phases of the Women’s Flag Football program.

Responsibilities and Primary Activities:

- Year-long recruiting of student-athletes and full management of the women’s flag football program in accordance with NAIA, Sun Conference, and university guidelines.
- This individual will lead all aspects of the program, including but not limited to, management of the graduate assistant coach, game and practice plans, travel, budget, equipment maintenance, etc. This coach’s philosophy needs to include educating the whole student-athlete: spiritually, academically, and athletically.
- The Head Coach is a representative of the department’s mission and vision fully aligning with that of the University.
- Maintains communications and regular contact with prospective student-athletes.
- Organizing prospective student-athlete day and campus visits with the Admissions office.
- Year-long program management monitoring academic progress of student athletes as well as working with off-season conditioning programs.
- Responsible for practice and game preparation
- Scouting of opponents by attending games, viewing video, or obtaining other scouting reports
- Commitment to community engagement and fundraising activities
- Position requires travel during the week and weekends.

Position Requirements: Bachelor’s degree and prior coaching experience are required, master’s degree and collegiate level of coaching preferred. An ideal candidate will possess experience demonstrating strong coaching skills, good verbal and written communication skills, the ability to keep accurate records and stats along with experience with Word and Excel programs, and the desire to act as a mentor and role model to the student athletes.